VCU Health
Course Description

Extreme Injuries & Injuries of Extremities is a multidisciplinary conference designed to inform attendees about current challenges in trauma care throughout the continuum and will emphasize the special care of extremity injuries from the street to definitive care and rehabilitation in the urban and austere environments. The Symposium will highlight the Stop the Bleed Campaign teaching effective bleeding control techniques in the face of a life-threatening external hemorrhage. The Symposium will also offer the Bleeding Control Basic (BCON) Course.

Target Audience

Physicians (faculty and house staff), nurses and EMS providers who participate in the care of the injured patient.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this meeting the successful learner should be better able to:
• Identify current standards of care for the treatment of geriatric trauma patients
• Identify current standards of care for the treatment of pediatric trauma patients
• Identify current strategies in the pre-hospital treatment for extremity injuries and the use of tourniquets and hemostatic agents
• Discuss the Hartford consensus and the regional implementation of the “Stop the Bleed” campaign
• Discuss the management of extremity injuries in austere conditions
• Explore the current management of vascular extremity injuries
• Discuss the multidisciplinary management of the mangled extremity
• Explore current identification and management strategies for compartment syndrome in the intensive care unit
• Identify a comprehensive approach to the management of the extremities in the post acute and recovery phase
